Welcome to Asteroid Astrology – Natural Astrology

Why use asteroids when there are so many of them? Firstly, you don't need them all. Just the Roman or Latin-named asteroids which fill the gap in the family tree of the planets (Neptune's wife, for example). Secondly, when you complete the family tree of astrology, you end up with two exciting new developments. At last we have an equal number of male and female heavenly bodies to work with. And by using a grand total of 34 symbols in a horoscope (from the Sun, via Salacia to the North Node) we have reached a Fibonacci number. One of the codes found in nature and art.

Asteroid Astrology is Roman.

For astrological knowledge to be logical, it has to be consistent. Our planetary archetypes (the gods and goddesses who lend their personalities to the planets) are Roman-Latin. So it's Mercury not Hermes. Venus not Aphrodite. Mars not Ares. Saturn not Chronos. Uranus not Ouranus, and so on. The Romans took Greek gods and goddesses, changed their names – and often their characteristics. These Italian archetypes were then exported to England, the birthplace of modern astrology – like Minerva (the Roman version of Pallas Athene). She's Jupiter's daughter. Asteroid number 93.

Asteroid Astrology Reflects the Real World.

Astrology changes with the times. As new heavenly bodies are discovered, helping to complete the family tree which started with Mercury, Venus and the rest, corresponding changes in the world reflect the new symbols for a horoscope. Many of the asteroids you are about to discover were found during the rise of feminism. They teach men about their feminine side (long neglected in astrology) and women about their true natures. It's important to note that being an asteroid, rather than a planet, does not diminish the importance of a symbol. Neptune's wife is just as crucial as he.

Asteroid Astrology Works Instantly

Carl Jung's explanation for astrology, synchronicity (powerful, meaningful coincidence) comes alive when you start using asteroids. Read about Minerva, see an owl. Attend a lecture about Diana, see a greyhound. There are many sources for discovering the Greek roots of the Roman asteroids which give us so many of these original symbols – adapted by the Romans. A Classical Dictionary by J.Lempriere free online via Google, from Harvard University. Asteroid Archetypes by Brian Clark, an Astro*Synthesis publication is a great modern overview, by an international authority in astrology.

Natural Astrology has 34 Horoscope Factors

Together with the Ascendant, Descendant, Immum Coeli, Midheaven, North Node and South Node there are now 34 horoscope factors to work with, when interpreting a birth chart. 34 is a Fibonacci number and has the properties of sacred geometry. Fibonacci numbers can be found in nautilus shells, Chartres Cathedral, the astronomical dance of Venus and in sunflowers too. By restoring the Roman/Latin family tree of the original planets (like Jupiter) astrology returns to a natural order.

Male-Female Energy Balance

By using the asteroids which complete the family tree of Roman/Latin astrology, an exact 50-50 gender balance is achieved with the archetypes. There are now 14 gods and 14 goddesses to explore in your birth chart.

Male Sun, Mercury, Mars, Vulcan, Cupid, Jupiter, Apollo, Bacchus, Chiron, Aesculapia, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune, Pluto
Female Moon, Venus, Psyche, Juno, Diana, Minerva, Fortuna, Panacea, Hygeia, Ops, Vesta, Salacia, Proserpina, Ceres.

Finding Jupiter's Women in Your Horoscope

Jupiter has always been the problem-solver of astrology, delivering opportunities and benefits. The women in his life (asteroids) inherit his helpful and hopeful qualities. You can find them, free, in your horoscope by going to www.astro.com online and following these instructions:

- From the main website, click on My Astro in the top right-hand corner.
- Click on 'Create a free horoscope immediately, as a Guest User'
- Once you reach the page headed Free Horoscopes at Astrodienst, scroll down to Extended Chart Selection at the end.
- You are now at Extended Chart Selection. Ignore the partner option at the top unless you have that data too. Under Methods, choose Natal Chart Wheel and Web Default Style.
- Leave Options as it is. • Leave Image Size as it is.
- Additional Objects: Go to the small empty box at the end of the page, and type in these numbers, using commas to separate them - 3, 19, 78, 93, 2878, 10
- You can now proceed to your horoscope, which should have Jupiter's women (the fortunate asteroids) clearly labelled in the box on the left-hand side of the screen.

Who's Who - Jupiter's Women

Jupiter's wife - Juno 3

Juno benefits from her husband's status and lifestyle, and her sign reveals where in life you gain from prestige and security. Juno's sign shows you the area of life where the good life is on offer. Of course, Juno also lacks true freedom.

Jupiter's daughter

Fortuna 19

Fortuna shows that part of you which unconsciously spins the wheel of fate and fortune for other people. She is the Wheel of Fortune in Tarot.

Jupiter's daughter Diana 78

Diana had no desire to either be married or have children and so Jupiter gave her the freedom to become a huntress. She is always shown with one foot poised to run, and a dog by her side. By sign she shows you where you will run free – she promises delicious wildness.

Jupiter's daughter Minerva 93

Minerva was born as an adult woman from Jupiter's brain. She is the evolved, later version of Pallas Athene. She beat Neptune in a battle of minds. As goddess of wisdom, by sign she shows you where you find brilliant solutions.

Jupiter's great-granddaughter Panacea 2878

Panacea is the daughter of Aesculapia, the supreme healer, and the granddaughter of Apollo, son of Jupiter. By sign, she shows you which area of life you can always find remedies for.

Jupiter's great-granddaughter Hygeia 10

Hygeia is Panacea's sister. She is always shown with her father's magical healing serpent. Hygeia is about prevention and protection. She is about caution.

THE SIGNS OF THE ZODIAC

When placed in a sign, each of Jupiter's women points to these areas of life –

ARIES – Image, profile, appearance, reputation, name, face, public identity.

TAURUS – Money, houses, apartments, business interests, possessions, values.

GEMINI – Computers, telephones, the spoken word, media and communication.

CANCER – Houses, apartments, families, mothers, patriotism, roots, origins

LEO – The next generation, your heirs, your sex life (with or without children).

VIRGO – Work in all its forms, daily routine, health, fitness, wellbeing.

LIBRA – Former, current and potential partners. Open enemies or opponents.

SCORPIO – Joint finances, property interests, business interests, possessions.

SAGITTARIUS – Travel, publishing, education, belief systems, foreign cultures.

CAPRICORN – Success, status, professional life, ambition, prestige, position.

AQUARIUS – Groups, friendships, networks, societies, unions, clubs, teams.

PISCES – Mysteries and boundary-free living: swimming, ESP, meditation.

Sacred Geometry and Asteroid Astrology

Sacred Geometry shows how your horoscope can be connected to the most beautiful and meaningful patterns in nature and art.

Sacred Geometry is based on the Fibonacci Number sequence, which begins at the beginning, with 0 and increases in natural stages, as you add the subsequent number to its predecessor. Thus –

0, 1, 1, 2, 3, 5, 8, 13, 21, 34

(Source: University of Surrey UK)

Those numbers are very special as they resonate in nature, art, holy buildings and and music. Two is obvious – we have two eyes and two ears. Three is the number of points on a pyramid or the Holy Trinity. Five? The petals on a flower. In music, The Rotary Octave with a 2:1 ratio sounds just right. On a harmonograph it even makes shapes which, when hand-drawn, look rather like the aspect patterns in horoscopes (see the section on The Beatles at the end of this book).

In Asteroid Astrology, where the Roman-named asteroids complete the family tree of the planets (like Jupiter, Saturn and so on) we end up with 34 factors to work with.

A Fibonacci number. There is something else remarkable about the Fibonacci sequence -

If you divide each number by its predecessor, then eventually you reach phi, the magic number, which is 1.618. For example, when you finally reach 89 divided by 55, you hit 1.618. This is the number of the Golden Rectangle.

You can also see Fibonacci Numbers in the dance of Jupiter and Saturn themselves, in what writer John Martineau calls “a 5:2 period-ratio waltz.” To see these and more mystical patterns read A Little Book of Coincidence in the Solar System (Wooden Books).

The new list is –

Sun, Moon, Mercury, Venus, Vulcan, Cupid, Psyche, Mars, Jupiter, Juno, Fortuna, Diana, Minerva, Bacchus, Apollo, Chiron, Aesculapia, Panacea, Hygeia, Saturn, Ops, Vesta, Uranus, Neptune, Salacia, Pluto, Ceres, Proserpina, North Node, South Node, Ascendant, Descendant, Midheaven, Immum Coeli. That's twice as many as mainstream astrology allows. But it connects us to nature!

Cupid in Amor Vincit Omnia (Caravaggio)

CUPID SON OF VENUS

CUPID Son of Venus and husband of Psyche. Asteroid 763, known as Cupido.

GREEK FORERUNNER Eros

MYTH Venus was jealous of Psyche's beauty and ordered her son Cupid to wound her with one of his arrows, then humiliate her by presenting her with a monster. Instead, Cupid accidentally wounded himself with his own arrow and fell helplessly in love with Psyche. Venus tormented Psyche then killed her. Jupiter gave her immortality.

MEANING Passion - Cupid describes fierce desire and longing in all its forms.

DISCOVERY 1913, the year that D.H.Lawrence published Sons and Lovers, his novel about the impact of mother-son relationships on love. It was also the year that public protests over inter-racial marriage prompted the Massachusetts 1913 Law.

by D.H.Lawrence

CUPID IN YOUR HOROSCOPE

INTERPRETATION Cupid by sign and house shows how passion is aroused in others, but also where one is also vulnerable to falling in love with a person, place, idea, situation or object. By transit it shows the area of life where passions suddenly begin. Cupid's desires are not always socially acceptable or, ironically, desirable. These passions may seem random. They may not always be logical or legal. But they can last.

PURE PASSION OSCAR WILDE AND LORD ALFRED DOUGLAS Writer Oscar Wilde and Lord Alfred Douglas were imprisoned for gross indecency in 1895. Oscar Wilde (pictured) was born with Cupid at 29 Virgo 31. SIR WINSTON CHURCHILL

NEVER GIVE IN, NEVER GIVE IN Sir Winston Churchill was born with asteroid Ops at 2 Sagittarius 18 and asteroid Panacea at 2 Aries 39. Speaking at Harrow School in 1941 he said: "This is the lesson : never give in, never give in, never,never, never never – in nothing, great or small, large or petty.." (Source: www.winstonchurchill.org)

The astrological signature of Ops in Sagittarius trine Panacea in Aries accurately reflects his victory in war.

SALACIA NEPTUNE'S WIFE

SALACIA Neptune's wife.
Trans-Neptunian Object
120347.

GREEK EQUIVALENT

Amphitrite

MYTH Neptune wanted to marry Salacia but she hid from him. He sent dolphins to find her and in the end, she agreed to be his wife. The word salt contains 'sal' from her name.

MEANING Salacia is that part of you which inhabits two worlds at once, like the sea and the beach. By sign and house in a horoscope, she shows where two realities co-exist.

DISCOVERY 2004 . In 2004 World Wide Web inventor Tim Berners-Lee won the planet's largest technology prize, The Millennium Technology Prize, for creating the WWW.

SALACIA IN YOUR HOROSCOPE

INTERPRETATION By sign and house, Salacia describes two alternatives to the real world, which happily exist, side by side. For example, the World Wide Web, discovered in the same year as Salacia, offers the artificial realities of websites and social media.

PETER COOK NOT ONLY...BUT ALSO Comic surrealist Peter Cook was born on 17th November 1937 in Torquay, England with Salacia at 11 Sagittarius 25, Aeculapia at 11 Sagittarius 16 and Uranus at 11 Taurus,09. CERES PLUTO'S MOTHER-IN-LAW

Wikimedia Commons

CERES Pluto's mother-in-law. Proserpina's mother. Dwarf planet number 1.

GREEK EQUIVALENT Demeter

MYTH Ceres lost her daughter Proserpina when Pluto fell in love with her and came up from Hades to abduct her. In her grief she neglected her role as Goddess of agriculture and the four seasons turned into endless winter. She appealed to Jupiter to bring about justice. Starving humanity appealed too. Jupiter asked Proserpina if she had eaten any pomegranate seeds while with Pluto. She said she had eaten half of them, so Jupiter gave Ceres access to her daughter every spring and summer.

MEANING Ceres shows you where you have control and power, but must deal with loss by compromising – seasonally or regularly - so that others may be empowered.

The Seasons, by Joseph Haydn, had its premiere in 1801, the year of Ceres' discovery. Roman writers tell us that when Proserpina was with Ceres, the latter's happiness delivered spring and summer. Jupiter's solution to the epic Pluto-Ceres power struggle was to dole out Proserpina's time seasonally, on a fair roster.

Indira Gandhi was born on November 19th 1917 at 11.11.14pm in Allahabad, India (Solar Fire, A Rodden Rating). She was the first female Prime Minister of India. Her horoscope reveals Ceres 19 Scorpio, Aesculapia 19 Aries, Bacchus 19 Libra, Cupid 19 Leo and Uranus 19 Aquarius. Gandhi oversaw India's Green Revolution which transformed the country's agriculture – and the territorial dispute over Kashmir.

CERES IN YOUR HOROSCOPE

INTERPRETATION Ceres by sign and house shows you where your passion lies. And your fair entitlement. But also where you will regularly have to let go of who or what is so precious. In doing so, you lend others power. Ceres shows where you must be taken ceres-ly (seriously). She is number one, but was ignored by astrology for years.

PROSERPINA PLUTO'S WIFE

PROSERPINA Pluto's wife. Daughter of Ceres.

Asteroid 26. Found 1853.

GREEK EQUIVALENT Persephone

MYTH When Pluto fell in love with Proserpina, the daughter of Ceres, he left Hell to abduct her from earth and make her his bride. In response to Ceres' complaints, Jupiter commanded Proserpina to spend half the year with her husband in Hell and half the year with her mother on Earth. Proserpina divides her time and loyalty.

MEANING Proserpina is a human bridge. Proserpina describes where you bridge gaps between powerful people or organizations. She is about pleasing everyone.

1853, the year Proserpina was discovered, is full of bridges. In 1853 the former slave Harriet Tubman freed American slaves on The Underground Railroad. In 1853 The Grand Trunk Railway was finished. The first telegraph cable between Scotland and Ireland was also laid in 1853.

PROSERPINA IN YOUR HOROSCOPE

INTERPRETATION Proserpina by sign and house shows where you negotiate the precarious 'bridge' between influential and controlling individuals, groups – or just power bases or places. Yet in holding the balance of power like this (being desired and shared by two parties) you are also empowered.

PRINCESS DIANA LADY IN BLACK

Princess Diana was born on July 1 1961 at 7.45pm, Sandringham, England (Solar Fire, Rodden rating B). Her chart reveals Proserpina at 6 Libra and Pluto at 6 Virgo. Proserpina is in Libra, the sign of marriage. Here, she is also married to Pluto.

THE SACRED GEOMETRY OF THE BEATLES

The Beatles, HMV Liverpool (Jessica Adams)

Using the Roman asteroids which complete the family tree of astrology reveals Sacred Geometry in The Beatles' natal charts. Each pattern which follows is exact (zero degree orb). Begin with the astrological chart of John Lennon, born October 9th 1940, 6.30pm, Liverpool, England (Solar Fire: Rodden Rating A) then compare Paul and George, who first created the band with him. (Ringo Starr was a later arrival, after Pete Best).

John, Paul, George and Aesculapia

John Lennon: Aesculapia

Paul McCartney: Psyche

George Harrison: Aesculapia

Making Music

Add more people, places and transits to The Beatles' 8 degree pattern to find new possibilities. Yoko Ono, has the Mean Nodes at 8 Pisces and 8 Virgo and the Ascendant at 8 Libra and Descendant at 8 Airies. (Source astro.com, rating A). Liverpool itself was founded with Pluto at 8 Leo.

Fated Events

John Lennon met Paul McCartney for the first time on July 6th 1957 at 3.30pm at St Peter's Church, Woolton, Liverpool (Data: The Beatles Bible). On that fateful day, Diana was at 8 Sagittarius and Saturn was also at 8 Sagittarius. John Lennon died at 11.00pm in New York on December 8th 1980 (Data: BBC) when Saturn stood at 8 Libra.

Aesculapia in the British Museum (Jessica Adams)

The three Beatles guitarists all share sacred geometry at 8 degrees, and all three connect through the asteroid Aesculapia. Aesculapia describes that part of us which revives and resurrects. Lennon had it in Gemini, the sign of the writer. McCartney had it in Virgo, the sign of the worker. Harrison had it in Sagittarius, the sign of the believer.

When Is a Grand Cross, not a Grand Cross?

Astrologers traditionally cringe at the sight of a Grand Cross (shared here between all four Beatles and Yoko Ono at 8% of Virgo, Pisces, Gemini and Sagittarius, and emphasised by the first meeting between the young (Lennon and McCartney). A Grand Cross is just as it sounds - four people whose horoscopes reveal squares and oppositions, which create a hard cross within the circle of the horoscope.

Adding more people, places and passing trends (transits) to patterns like a Grand Cross also creates new shapes, though. Liverpool herself provided Pluto in Leo. You can find more examples of events, people and places in the lives of The Beatles which reshape the Grand Cross. Allow no more than one degree orbs as Sacred Geometry is precise. It's also important to use AA or A Rodden-rated data where possible.

Throwing Shapes

Throwing shapes on the Help! Album

All four Beatle horoscopes throw shapes at 0 degrees.
John Lennon Chiron o Leo
 George Harrison Moon o Scorpio, Uranus o Gemini
 Paul McCartney Hygeia o Cancer
 Ringo Starr Proserpina o Capricorn

The famous cover of the Help! album is an unwitting nod to Sacred Geometry and astrology too, as the Fab Four accidentally create everything from squares to T-squares. Do your own research on key Beatle places, people and events to add more 0 degree factors and throw new shapes.

Over to You

The Beatles' natal charts and life events are well-documented, often to AA Rodden Rating status. Now, over to you, for further research. Asteroid-based astrology is a developing field which all astrologers can contribute to.

Vesica Piscis shapes in London and Paris: Jessica Adams

Can you find the precious Vesica Piscis of Sacred Geometry in the lives of The Beatles? It's an ancient shape, which resembles the fish bladder it is named for (in Latin). The figure of Jesus Christ is often shown within it, in churches. You will also find it in old buildings – and even the Chanel logo. To obtain it, two horoscopes with a pair of exact conjunctions are required. The 'fish bladder' appears when you draw the shape which occurs when two exact conjunctions intersect.

Along with the chart patterns at 0, 8 and 16 degrees you will find with The Beatles there are many more. Look for the shapes of nature, the honeycomb in a beehive or the five petals in a frangipani consider the shapes you see

Chichester Cathedral: Jessica Adams

Astrology is alchemy. It allows for change to breathe new life into old patterns. A Grand Cross can become so much more – even just with transits. You can draw a Grand Cross in this stone circle, above Chichester Cathedral in England. But you can also find what pagans would identify as a hexagram, and what astrologers call two Grand Trines.

Decoding the poetry of Sacred Geometry patterns helps decode horoscopes in just a few words. Many Beatles songs 'speak' the patterns at 16 degrees above. The charts also speak in stunning crystalline images, resembling the natural world. At the end of this section you can see three examples of combined charts, created by Sven Haile.

Putting it all together: John Lennon's Asteroid Horoscope

John Lennon was born on October 9th 1940 at 6.30pm in Liverpool, England (Source: Solar Fire, Rodden Rating A). Use the house system of your choice to interpret John Lennon's horoscope. I use the Aries 0 degree Ascendant house system as it is a pure way of reading astrology.

Aesculapia in Gemini – Lennon resurrected nonsense verse in the 1960s, reviving a form first popularised by Edward Lear and Lewis Carroll. (See A Spaniard in the Works and In His Own Write).

Apollo in Virgo – Lennon led the way in popularising macrobiotic food. He might also have been said to pioneer new ideas about work, and the working class. He was a house-husband for some years.

Bacchus in Sagittarius – Bacchus describes pure pleasure. In Sagittarius, the sign ruling foreign nationalities and publishing, Lennon found a life with a Japanese wife and a music publishing empire.

Ceres in Scorpio – Scorpio rules matters of a joint financial nature, from business interests to property. Ceres describes ownership, loss and compromise. It is the story of Apple and The Beatles.

Chiron in Leo – Chiron is not an asteroid, but he is a potent symbol of audacity andchutzpah (defined by astrologer Dennis Elwell). In Leo, Chiron manifests obviously in Lennon's chart.

Cupido (Cupid) in Taurus – A surprisingly large number of Beatles songs are about money. Can money buy you love? Are the best things in life are free? Baby You're A Rich Man!

Diana in Sagittarius – Another important asteroid in the sign of Sagittarius, ruling foreign nationalities and publishing. Diana describes that part of Lennon which was always free.

Fortuna in Aries – Fortuna is that part of Lennon which spun the wheel of fortune, blindly, for other people. He dictated their fate, without being able to see it – via his public image and reputation.

Hygeia in Pisces – Hygeia describes that part of Lennon which practised preventative care and pre-emptive, protective measures. In Pisces, perhaps the story is about drugs.

Minerva in Pisces – The asteroid goddess of wisdom in the sign of Pisces may again point to Lennon's creative use of drugs. Pisces is also associated with the imagination, however – in all its forms.

Ops in Scorpio – Saturn's wife Ops shows where one struggles with tough realities, but always finds a happy ending or hope for the future. In Scorpio (finance) again this may be the story of Apple.

Proserpina in Capricorn – Proserpina is that part of Lennon which was a go-between, bridging the gap between powerful people or organisations. In Capricorn, this is solely about his career.

Salacia in Sagittarius – The third appearance of a heavenly body in Sagittarius, the sign which has always been associated with travel, foreign people and the world of the published word or idea.

Vesta in Leo – Vesta in a man's chart describes the gender politics which takes place when there is one male authority figure with two or more women. In Leo, it suggests issues around children.

Psyche in Gemini – Psyche is the butterfly in us all. The eternal soul or spirit which survives every test. Perhaps this is the most profound placement in Lennon's chart. In Gemini – his words live on.

Juno in Leo – Another Leo placement. Juno as Jupiter's wife shows that part of Lennon which exchanged freedom for domestic comfort. Again, in Leo, it suggests the world of children.

Panacea in Virgo – Panacea gave Lennon the ability to solve, repair, cure or fix issues in his life. In Virgo, this is about work, and also the physical body. It has a clear connection to drugs.

Vulcano (Vulcan) in Libra – Vulcan is every man's working-class man. Or craftsman. In Libra, the sign of Lennon's sun, Vulcan finds an outlet through partnership (the famous McCartney-Lennon pairing).
