

PAUL FENTON-SMITH

Biography

Counsellor and clairvoyant Paul Fenton-Smith is the author of thirteen books on personal development. His passion and enthusiasm for his work makes him popular on television and as a guest speaker and teacher.

After completing palmistry studies in Adelaide in 1978, Paul moved to Sydney in 1980 and studied tarot reading in 1984. While honing his skills in private practice, he founded the Academy of Psychic Sciences in 1985 to teach palmistry and tarot reading, adding psychic development some years later.

Paul received a diploma of clinical hypnotherapy in 1986, studied counselling in 1992 and received a Graduate Diploma in counselling in 2016 (Western Sydney University). He also studied meditation and intuitive development in the UK in 1991.

Aside from his teaching commitments at the Academy, Paul runs a busy private practice in Sydney as a clairvoyant, counsellor and hypnotherapist and conducts courses internationally. Through practising and teaching intuitive studies for more than 40 years, Paul encourages his clients and students to believe only what they can see or experience for themselves. He believes that everyone has intuitive talents and passionately encourages people to explore these areas in practical ways.
